

Welfare Arrangements for Today's Service

- Toilets are available inside Bedlington Community Centre.
- First aid – there is a First aid point inside Bedlington Community Centre staffed by St. John Ambulance.
- Lost Children – a lost children point is located at the reception desk inside Bedlington Community Centre.
- Inclement weather – a warm inside room is available for service attendees who would like to shelter from inclement weather. Please note spaces are limited and your view of the services will be restricted.
- Emergency – in the event of an emergency please contact the emergency services as you would normally and please also let any of the event volunteers know so they can also coordinate a response without delay.
- Finally – West Bedlington Town Council would like to invite everyone to free refreshments before and at the conclusion of today's service inside Bedlington Community Centre.

Should you require any additional information, please ask any of the volunteers (wearing Hi Viz Vests) for assistance.

The Act of Remembrance

The Exhortation

They shall not grow old, as we who are left grow old;
age shall not weary them, or the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
we will remember them.

All: We will remember them

The Last Post

Two Minutes Silence

Reveille

Kohima Epitaph

When you go home,
Tell them of us and say:
For your tomorrow,
We gave our today.

The National Anthem

Blessing

March off

Abide with Me

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide.
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide!
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me!

I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless.
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still if thou abide with me.

Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes.
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies.
Heaven's morning breaks and earth's vain shadows flee.
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

Henry Francis Lyte (1793-1847)

The National Anthem

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King.
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us:
God save the King.
